Chapter 10 Problem 12

The picture about shows the value of the displacement of the beam.
Using $F = k \Delta l$ the $F_z$ at the end of the beam is 3.01 N. The answer I calculated was 3 N the difference could simply be from rounding. The numbers are right, but directionality is flipped.